MESSAGE FROM [MUFTĪ] SUHAIL PATEL (HEAD TEACHER)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

All praise be to Allāh, the Almighty, the Most High, and may peace & blessings be upon His beloved Nabī, Muhammad ﷺ.

Alhamdulillah, our new academic year has begun this month. A very warm welcome to our new students that have stepped through our doors for the very first time. And welcome back to our returning students that have progressed onto their next class. May Allāh fill this academic year with barakah, growth & success. Āmīn.

'Whoever's beginning doesn't endure some burning, their end will not be illuminating.'

[Ibn 'Atā'illāh al-Iskandarī]

Taking from the above quote, let us maximize chances of success this year by striving and working hard from the beginning. We can achieve this through strengthening attendance; punctuality; supervising home studies; and motivating our children towards dīn.

Lastly, as the earthquakes in Turkey & Syria continues to unravel further casualties and loss, an appeal has been held for donations to provide aid & support to the people of the afflicted areas. (Details of this are on the last page)

We pray Allāh ta'ālā grants our brothers and sisters relief, and grants the highest of paradise to all the lives that have been lost. Āmīn.

'Give Your Child a 20 Year Head Start in Life' – Muftī Abdur-Rahman ibn Yusuf Mangera

They say that a child who has a righteous & learned mother, has been given about a 20 year head start in terms of religious life and connection to Allāh than somebody, who does not have a mother who is religiously inclined and religiously educated.

Can you imagine it? Children brought up in two different households. One, only when they become 18, 19 or 20 they discover Islām for themselves, and then start learning. But the child who had a mother (or father) that sent them to maktab and reinforced the madrasah training at home.

There's a lot of it (Islamic education), that they learn from home compared to madrasah, really. Madrasah is very powerful, but what the parents can teach, especially the mother, is a lot more intensive and critical than what the maktab can provide.

Maktab provides certain formal training, in terms of reading the Qur'ān etc. But in terms of the akhlāq, character, perspective, outlook, compassion and having Allāh in your life, then SubhānAllāh that is reinforced by the mother more, even in comparison to the father, as the mother has a more intimate connection with the children.

May Allāh bless our mothers!

FUNDRAISING CAMPAIGNS

Alhamdulillah, in January we also held our monthly Sweets Sale, in order to raise funds for our upcoming Youth Centre inshāAllāh. Once again, this was led by our Youth Enrichment Programme students. May Allāh accept their efforts.

GAMES NIGHT HIGHLIGHTS

This January has also seen the continuation of our Games Night event, an initiative led by the students of our 'Ālimiyyah programme māshāAllāh.

The event allowed for young Muslim girls to come together and meet new people in a fun, friendly and Islamic environment. They enjoyed themselves with a variety of fun activities, refreshments and concluded with a discussion on how to balance living in this temporary world whilst staying true to dīn.
